

How Do I Register and Access Score Reports for My ACT[®] Test?

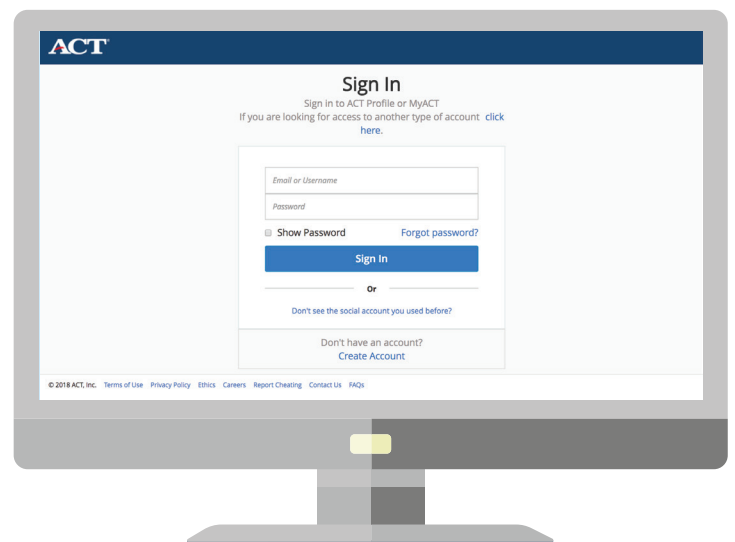

Students who plan to take the ACT in a test center outside the United States must first register online to take the test. Find out below how to register and how to get your score reports.

If this is your first time taking the test...

MyACT.org is the place for first-time examinees to register for the test and access score reports for 2018–19 test dates. Go to myact.org to access MyACT.

At MyACT.org, you can:

- Register to take the ACT
- Find a test center location
- Select a test session (date and time)
- Request test accommodations
- Opt in to the ACT Educational Opportunity Service (EOS) and connect with universities
- Select universities to receive your score reports – up to 4 universities for free! Plus, you can order additional score reports.
- Discover majors and occupations that fit your interests (and tell universities about your interests)
- Take ACT practice tests

During registration, you will need:

- About 30 minutes to register
- A credit card or voucher
- Your email address
- A list of your grades and courses you have taken

If you have taken the test before September 2018 and want your test scores, see next page

If you have taken the test before September 2018 and want to: 1) view your test scores, or 2) request additional score reports...

Prior to September 2018, you used Student Web Services (SWS) to register for the ACT test. You can search your email for a link to SWS to find your score reports. You can request additional score reports here, too.

However... if you want to retake after September 2018, go to myact.org to register.
